LAW SCHOOL ADMISSION TEST/LAW SCHOOL DATA ASSEMBLY SERVICE

Have you taken the Law School Admission Test (LSAT)? Yes (date), No (date you plan to take the test)

Are you registered with the Law School Data Assembly Service (LSDAS)? Yes, No (if no, you must register with the LSDAS as soon as possible).

List in chronological order all schools attended since high school, including summer, extension, or correspondence courses. If you have attended another law school and are applying to the first-year class, you must include the law school transcript in your LSDAS report and explain in your personal statement your reason for withdrawing from law school.

Name of Institution	Location	Dates Attended	Degree Conferred and Major

Yes No Have you ever been subject to sanction or discipline by any academic institution, or do you have pending any charges which could lead to discipline? (You need not include sanctions stemming from academic probation or academic dismissal).

Yes No Have you ever been convicted of a crime or adjudicated delinquent, or are there any criminal charges pending against you? (You need not report either juvenile matters for which records have been sealed or minor traffic violations).

Yes No Have you ever been, or are you presently, subject to a disciplinary proceeding by any professional organization or licensing body?

If your answer to any of the above questions is “yes” you must include a separate statement describing your actions and complete details of the charges and sanctions against you [include date(s) of matter(s), status of final disposition of the charge(s) and name and address of the authority in possession of your record]. Applicants are strongly encouraged to err on the side of inclusion rather than exclusion in answering these questions. A positive answer to any of these questions does not necessarily adversely affect admission, but failure to disclose relevant information may lead to disciplinary action.

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS AND PROCEDURES

Applications for admission will not be processed until all credentials have been received. The applicant is responsible for making sure credentials are received.

I. All applicants must submit the following:

A. Personal Statement – A statement no longer than three typed pages (double spaced, 12-point font) written by you, including information about your distinctive qualities, talents, achievements, and life experiences.

B. Resume – A descriptive resume listing employment (including organization name, address, and phone number), honors, publications, extracurricular activities and community service. If you were not employed or not attending school on a full-time basis for any period of time, indicate dates and how your time was spent.

C. Application Fee – A non-refundable $50.00 check or money order payable to Board of Regents.

D. Letter of Recommendation – At least one letter of recommendation from an individual who has supervised the applicant in an academic or employment setting. Academic references are preferred.

II. All applicants must register for, and maintain an up-to-date file with, the Law School Data Assembly Service. Application files must contain an LSDAS report to be eligible for admissions committee review.

III. All part-time applicants must submit a brief statement describing the reasons why they are applying to either of the part-time programs.

I certify that the information provided in this application is complete and correct. I further certify that I will immediately notify the school should anything occur between now and matriculation which would cause me to change my answers to any question on this application. I understand that if subsequent evidence demonstrates that the information I have provided is not complete and correct, it may result in revocation of admission, dismissal from the School, or revocation of degree. I understand that I am responsible for being familiar with and adhering to all academic regulations.
